Postmaster Edgar Allan, Jr., of Richmond, to the extent of $17,260 for the amount now charged against him by the government as a result of the big post-office robbery in Richmond about two years ago. At that time there was stolen in money and stamps$ 86,746, and all but $17,200 of this amount has been recovered. As it has been clearly shown that Mr. Allan was in no way to blame for the robbery, the Senate committee just referred to, decided that the postmaster should not be charged with the loss. It is quite likely that Senators Martin and Swanson will call the matter up within the near future, and urge its passage.
